

Rosa Mae Collins

October 16, 1954 - November 16, 2023

Rosa Mae Collins a kind-hearted and compassionate woman who touched the lives of those around her was born on October 16, 1954 to the union of Oscar James Dothard and Gennie Nell McCluney Dothard.

Growing up, she experienced the joys and challenges that shaped her into the remarkable person she became. Relying on her unwavering faith in God, Rosa Mae accepted Christ at a young age and found solace and strength in her spiritual journey. She dedicated her life to serving the Lord, joining St. Mark Church of God in Christ Lincoln, Alabama, where she found a community that embraced her with open arms. Later on, Rosa continued her faithful dedication to the Lord at Freewill Church of God in Christ, using her time and talents to glorify God. She received her formal education in the Talladega County School System.

Rosa Mae's warm and loving nature extended into her professional life, where she worked as a dedicated housekeeper in the domestic industry. Her attention to detail, warmth, and joyful spirit brought comfort to those she served. Rosa Mae took great pride in her care for others, creating a clean and welcoming environment wherever she went.

Outside of her work, Rosa Mae had a passion for gardening. Her green thumb was a testament to her love for nature and her ability to nurture life. It was a common sight to find Rosa tending to her beautiful flowers, finding peace and serenity among the vibrant colors of her garden. Additionally, Rosa Mae cherished moments spent shopping and engaging in meaningful conversations with anyone who crossed her path. Her infectious smile brought joy to those around her, and her genuine interest in others made everyone feel valued and loved.

Our beloved Rosa Mae peacefully departed from this earthly realm on November 16, 2023, while in the care of Princeton Baptist Medical Center in Birmingham, Alabama. She was preceded in death by her parents, Oscar and Gennie Dothard, son, Charles Dothard, Jr., two brothers, Rickey Dothard and Lee Ernest Dothard and three sisters, Bobbie Nell Stockdale, Mary Ann Dothard, and Vada McCluney.

Rosa' Mae's legacy will forever be etched in the hearts of her loved ones: her two devoted children, Jackie Dothard and Ron (Andrea) Dothard, Sr., who were the lights of Rosa Mae's life. The bond they shared was unbreakable, and they will carry their mother's love and spirit with them always. Her extended family, Charles E. Collins. Rosa will also be dearly missed by her three brothers, James Dothard, Willie Dothard, and Elder Oscar O. (Andora) Dothard; four sisters, Catherine (Raymond) Collins, Virginia Carodine, Tina Peterson, and Roberta Esters; three loving grandchildren, Alex Smith, Ron Dothard, Jr., and Jerrica Douthitt (Brittany) Curry; great-granddaughter, Arianna Miller;; her special friends and beloved sisters in Christ, Brenda Fomby and Gloria Hines; and a wide circle of relatives and friends whose lives she enriched with her presence.

Rosa Mae will forever be remembered as a compassionate, loving soul who brightened the lives of those fortunate enough to know her. Her spirit will live on through the memories she created and the love she shared. Though she may no longer be physically present, her legacy and the indelible mark she left on our hearts will endure for generations to come.

Rest in eternal peace, dear Rosa Mae. Your light will continue to shine brightly in our lives.
