

Sammie Booker

February 22, 1957 - March 20, 2021

Sammie Lee Booker began his earthly journey on February 22, 1957 in Talladega, Alabama to the parentage of the late Tommie Lee Booker and the late Mary Elizabeth Booker.

At an early age, Sammie accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and united with Morning Star Baptist Church. Sammie attended Madison High School and upon completion, he joined the Army National Guard on January 5, 1978, which after 25 years and 5 months of dedication to his country, he retired. Sammie was employed with Imerys Mineral Company in Sylacauga for 15 years. Later in life, he decided to change sceneries and make Anderson, Indiana his home.

Sammie was a fun-loving, caring, and devoted father, grandfather, and brother. He loved his family and spending time with his children and grandchildren. Sammie was very spontaneous person and always loved to travel. He will truly be missed by his loved ones and friends.

On Saturday evening, March 20, 2021, Sammie answered the Master's call and transitioned from this earthly journey to his eternal home. Preceding him in death were his parents, Tommie and Mary Booker.

Sammie's loving memories will forever be cherished in the hearts of his beloved children; five daughters, Ratia Wells of Hamilton Ohio, Adrian Battle of Talladega AL, Amelia (Demetreous) Hill of Talladega AL, Deidra Booker of Talladega AL, and Dera Booker of Talladega AL; two sons Sammie Lee Booker Jr. of Talladega, AL and Terrance of Anniston, AL; one sister, Barbara Elaine Booker of Anderson, Indiana; nine grandchildren, one nephew, and a host of other relatives and friends.
