

Sandra Monroe

September 25, 1953 - February 26, 2023

"And I will dwell in the house of Jehovah our Lord for all of my days!"

Born September 25, 1953, Sandra Faye Monroe as a bright and shining star. Sandra Faye known to others as "Faye", daughter of Doralene-Monroe / Robert Sidney Simington (both deceased), sister to Annette and Shelia Ann Monroe.

Lord God we present to you Sandra Faye Monroe our dear sister who we loved here on earth.

Our prayer is that Sandra Faye Monroe is lead to a well-watered resting place, where he refreshes her.

Although the walk is in a valley of a deep shadow, she shall fear no harm knowing that God is with her.

Faye was reminded that God promised and reassured her, through the repentance of her faith, to be her rod and staff.

For surely goodness and the loyalty of love will pursue her - Sandra Faye Monroe forever more.

Father, we release Sandra Faye Monroe to dwell in the house of our Lord God Jehovah.

Thank you for lending her to us, allowing us to learn and share, for now we know what we could have or should not have done.

Forgive us of our transgressions and glorify us with your wisdom and knowledge. Lord it is our desire to continue to learn and walk in the ways of you- the Lord God who is mighty in all of his ways.

One whom we remember of your kindness towards others, laughter and smile - never to forget you.

Now entrusting her in the care of the almighty God of all, our sister and family Sandra Faye Monroe.

As we Pray - Annette Monroe

“ I did not see you close your eyes or hear your last sigh, I only heard that you were gone, too late to say goodbye. It's hard to forget someone who gave so much loving fun to remember, the loss is immeasurable, but so is the LOVE left behind. You will be missed but not forgotten, REST IN HEAVEN!!!!!!
