*My Dearest Aunt Sarah,
Aunt Sarah helped shape my formative years. She had a respectful passion for teaching and shaped many lives. The phrase "It takes a village to raise a child" holds to life. During those days, if you got into trouble in school, you were punished for the same thing when you got home. I watched her grade homework for students and sometimes assisted. She often timelessly graded papers into the night. She also participated in many hours of after-school activities and worked with several churches within various communities. Aunt Sarah, your work here on earth is complete. Thank you for your contribution to this world. May God Bless you. Rest In Heaven. Nephew, Ronald Kidd*
