

Sarah Frances Malott

May 23, 1935 - August 13, 2022

Sarah Frances Malott was born May 23, 1935, to the parentage of the late Walter Frank Andrews and Florine Rowe Henderson in Rocky Hollow, Alabama.

Ms. Sarah Frances Malott 87-year life's journey has truly been a blessing to everyone she has encounter beginning with her youth. She was definitely the Webster's Dictionary definition of a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend.

As a youth, Ms. Malott accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and later united with Welcome Chapel CME Church. She was educated in the Calhoun County School System. It did not take long for Mrs. Malott to realize that family was her priority, and she became a domestic engineer and cared for her family as a loving mother would. Ms. Malott was a fun loving, kind-hearted, energetic person who wasn't going to let anything interfere with her spending time with her blessed generations of LOVE.

On Saturday, August 13, 2022, after God had graciously blessed and given Ms. Sarah Frances Malott to us for eighty-seven long earthly years, he felt it was time for him to peacefully close her eyes one last time to this earthly world accept her new heavenly wings and fly to her new eternal home where she was greeted by her parents, Walter Andrews and Florine Henderson; daughter, Althea Woods and brother, Eugene Andrews.

Ms. Malott leaves behind a legacy of love to be cherish by her two loving daughters, Emmelyn Deneise (Kenneth) Cunningham and Ceretha (Ricky) Allen; one son, Lawrence (Ann) Mull; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, community friends, and other friends far and near.
