

Synoriva Gail Goodman-Brewster

September 26, 1965 - September 18, 2024

Synoriva "Gail" Brewster was born to the parentage of Ernestine Graves and the late Frank Goodman on September 26, 1965, in Anniston, AL. As a small child, she moved with her family to New York. She attended Walter G O'Connell Copiague High School. After moving back to Alabama, she then joined Welcome Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in Hobson City, AL. Deciding she wanted to venture out, she would eventually settle in Milwaukee, WI where she became a member of Abundant Faith Church of Integrity.

Gail was always a calming inspiration. She never let anyone, or anything break her soul. She never let the woes of life bring her down. She was a lover of life. She loved spending time with her grandchildren, her mother, and her children. She was a beacon of light to all those she crossed paths within this world. She was one to devote her life to friends and family making sure everyone around was filled with all the love and laughter she had to offer. She lived big, laughed more, and loved harder than most people. She could find a way to make anyone she met her newfound friend. She spent 18 years of her career taking care of others at Newcastle Place where her kindness and smile would brighten the darkest corridor. She enjoyed spending time with her coworkers as well as the residents making them laugh and lifting the downest of spirits.

On September 18, 2024, with the love and support of her family surrounding her, Gail answered the call home at her residence. She was welcomed into the gates of heaven by her fathers: Frank Goodman and Ralph Graves, her grandmothers: Anna Roland and Betty Goodman, her grandfathers: Rev. Jasper Goodman, Archie Westbrook, and James Roland, and her granddaughter: A'Day Pyles.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory her husband, Wayne Brewster of Amityville, New York, her loving children, Anthony Pyles of Milwaukee, WI., Nasheeta Brewster of Anniston, AL, LaKeitha Brewster of Milwaukee, WI., and Syrenthia Pyles of Milwaukee, WI.; her grandchildren, Anthony Jr., Syakiah, Alayah, Alaynah, Keontae, Kamarion, Kailey, A'Dream, Kelis, A'Royal, Robert, and Seven; her devoted mother Ernestine Graves of Anniston, AL.; her brothers, Anthony (Pam) Goodman of Anniston, AL., Marse Goodman of Anniston, AL., and Frankie Goodman of New York City, NY.; and her sister, Alice Graves Crook of Bay Minette, AL. She cherished the time spent with the other two amigos, her cousins, Tina Phillips of Alabaster, AL and LaKeitha Denson of Jacksonville, AL. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and extended family.
