

Tamar Lynn Dosius

November 26, 2002 - October 6, 2023

Born on November 26, 2002, in Washington D.C. to parents Lekisha Ozojiofor and Patrick Dosius, Sr., Tamar Lynn Dosius was a beautiful bundle of joy that brought light and laughter to all those around her.

Soon after Tamar was born, she and her family relocated to Maryland where she attended Heaven of Grace known as Jerusalem. Once moving to Talladega in 2018, Tamar began worshipping with New Vision Church and later the Church of Israel in Birmingham where she became an Israelite. Her faith in God was known to everyone from her youth as she and her sister Precious would always practice preaching with silverware. Tamar was a woman of great ambition and determination. She received her formal education in the Talladega County School System and was a graduate of Talladega County Central High School. Upon completing high school, Tamar continued on to pursue a career in the healthcare industry, working as a Certified Nursing Assistant at Talladega Health and Rehab. Tamar's compassionate nature made her a beloved caregiver to those in need. She also was employed with McDonald's where she enjoyed meeting new people on a daily basis as she greeted them with that beautiful warm smile she always carried.

In her spare time, Tamar nurtured her passion for singing and dancing. Known for her beautiful voice, she often performed at various events and church services, captivating audiences with her talent. Tamar's infectious laughter and contagious smile brought joy to everyone she encountered.

Family meant the world to Tamar, and she cherished the love and support she received from her family. Each and every day her mother would make sure Tamar and her siblings recited The Lord's Prayer and it is our prayer that The Lord's Prayer will live on with Tamar in spirit.

Tamar Lynn Dosius, a beloved daughter, sister, mother, aunt, and friend, transitioned from our world on October 6, 2023, while under the care of Regional Medical Center in Anniston, Alabama surrounded by loved ones. As she made her grand entrance through those pearly gates, along with her son, Taymar Moten in her arms, they were reunited with their beloved grandmother, great-grandmother and Maxine Beavers, and grandfather and great-grandfather, Eldridge Beavers.

Tamar's legacy lives on through her beautiful children, Khy'ree Moton, whom she loved unconditionally; loving parents, Lekishia (Stephen) Ozojiofor and Patrick Dosius, Sr.; grandmother, Justine Dosius; Tamar shared a special bond with her bonus father, Stephen Ozojiofor; siblings, Rodrick (Andra) Beavers, Diamond (Domonic) Beavers, Precious Beavers, Patrick (Ny-Ny) Dosius Jr, and Angel Dosius, together, they created countless cherished memories and supported one another through life's ups and downs; bonus brother, Marcus Jackson; four nieces, Amiyah Davis, Jeremiah Tharps, Josiah Davis, and Syncere Beavers; her aunts and uncles, Kathy (Dee) Beavers, Danny (Veronica) Beavers, Eldridge Beavers, Valerie (Von) Allen, Sundra Boyd, Tosha (Tony) Massey, Marie (Christopher) Lacroix, Emmanuela (Robert) Brunelus, Muriel (Francis) Ayodeji, Marie (Charles) Lefrand, and Dylia Lamisere; her companion, Kavon Moton; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

In her passing, Tamar leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and compassion. Though she may no longer be with us physically, her spirit will eternally live on in our hearts. May her soul find rest and eternal peace, and may her memory continue to bring us comfort, inspiration, love, and laughter.
