

Tammy C Ware

May 22, 1966 - July 18, 2025

Miss Tammy C. Ware, the precious daughter of Lottie M. Ware and the late George Thomas, graced this world with her presence on May 22, 1966, in Anniston, Alabama.

Tammy was no stranger to the Lord. Her profound faith was the foundation and driving force in her life and her strong spiritual connection was revealed in her fervent prayers. Tammy was a prayer warrior who touched countless lives with her kindness and compassion. She was a member of Mount Liberty Baptist Church where her faith and belief were continuously strengthened and reinforced. She was deeply committed to her church and served diligently as a Sunday School Teacher, Sunday School Superintendent, and a former member of the Matron Ministry. Tammy received her education in the Anniston City School System graduating from Anniston High School in 1984. After high school, she pursued higher learning and obtained a bachelor's degree. Tammy eventually embarked on a rewarding career as a case worker at the law firm of Pitts & Zanaty, L.L.C. where her compassion and strong voice made a tangible difference in the lives of those she served.

Tammy was a devoted mother to her only son, Malcolm who was the center of her world. She poured unwavering love and support into every moment they shared, embodying the essence of what it means to be a dedicated mom. She was not just Malcolm's mother; she was his biggest cheerleader and confidant.

Tammy, a sweet soul who never met a stranger, had a sparkling personality that made her impossible to ignore. You would hear her before you saw her. Her genuine spirit and generous heart knew no bounds. Tammy lived a simple life. Although she was a shopaholic, she enjoyed watching a good movie at home or entertaining and connecting with family and friends. Her home was a sanctuary of joy and love.

On Friday, July 18, 2025, Tammy heard the Master say well done and peacefully rose to her reward of everlasting life. She was preceded in death by her father, George Thomas, stepfather, Robert L. Ware, beloved aunt, Cassandra Orr, and grandparents, George and Sadie Bolton.

Tammy's treasured memories will forever be cherished by her son who was her pride and joy, Malcolm Edmondson; mother, Lottie M. Ware; sisters, Claudette Streeter, Brenda (Milton) Elston, Sharon Ware, Cynthia Ware, Faith (Ricky) Patterson, and Regina Thomas; nieces, Kimiko, LaTrisha, Alicia, Gabrielle, Tesmia, LaKesha, and Tiffany; nephews, Maurice "Peter", Milton, Jr., and Derrick "DK"; adopted children; Destiny Stoudemire, Natashia Talley, Jacquella West, Safira English-Sims, Ryan Miller, and Elijah Edmondson; sister-friends, Janice Johnson-Simmons, Cecelia Green, Phyllis Hawkins, Tawanna English, Rochelle English, Natasha Johnson, Teresa Glover, and Bonnie Goggins; and a host of other siblings, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

While we mourn her loss, we also take this time to reflect on the joyful moments filled with laughter and love that Tammy brought into our lives. As we say goodbye, let us carry on her spirit by embracing the love and kindness she so selflessly shared with the world.

A beautiful person to know, a Sister a Friend. No more pain, no more troubles of this world. We love you, but God love you best, now decorate your Heavenly Home. "RIP MY FRIEND" I MISS YOU ALREADY. YOU WEREN'T SUPPOSED TO BE IN MY BOOK TO ORDER A FLOWER. And yes I do know it's all in the good Lords plan He needed you more with Him now. For I believe His plan is much greater. You rest my sister, you rest. 🌸💔😞

Today is very lonely without our calls to one another every other day laughing, and telling of the Lords goodness, how he pick us up, turn us around, set us on a solid foundation to do the will of the Lord. Tami, I will continue to do the will of the Lord, teaching and preaching His holy words, to free the people and the Lord setting them in the right direction. Amen. RIP MY SISTER REST 🌸
