

Tamiko Wills

November 30, 1977 - January 17, 2026

Tamiko Jacqueline Wills, aged 48, passed away on January 17, 2026, in Anniston, Alabama. Born on November 30, 1977, Tamiko was a cherished figure in her community and a beacon of love and support within her family.

Tamiko was renowned for her unwavering dedication to her family. She was a devoted mother and an even more exceptional grandmother. Her grandchildren were the joy of her life, and she spent countless hours playing with them and cheering them on at various sports events. Her presence at these events, always supportive and enthusiastic, will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her children, Marquis Wills, Jalene Wills, Kaleb Wills, and her daughter, Leia Baldwin; her brothers, Matt Wills, Chase Wills, and Fabian Hunt; as well as her many nieces and nephews. Her loving legacy continues through her grandchildren, Jakobi Wills, Ava Wills, and Kingston Wills. Tamiko was preceded in death by her mother, Essie Mae Wills.

Tamiko's life was a testament to the power of unconditional love and support. Her ability to be "always a phone call away" for her children and grandchildren underscored her role as a pillar of strength and comfort in their lives. Her warmth, kindness, and spirited cheerfulness will be forever remembered by all who were fortunate enough to know her.
