Known for her vibrant spirit and caring heart, she devoted her life to nurturing those around her, particularly during her many years as a dedicated server in the restaurant industry. Her enthusiasm for life extended to her passion for Alabama Crimson Tide Football, reflecting her exuberant personality and loyalty to her roots.

As time winds its course, we look ahead to a future where Tracey's spirit transcends this earthly realm, as she embarks on her journey towards eternal peace. Tracey Ann Levitt, a cherished daughter, devoted mother, beloved sister, adoring grandmother, and a steadfast friend gracefully departed this world on April 23, 2025, in Birmingham, Alabama, at the age of 47.

In the tapestry of memories that remain, Tracey leaves behind a legacy woven with love, laughter, and firm familial ties. Her presence, love, and strength will forever resonate in the hearts of her three loving children: daughter, Kiara (Jaquez) President and sons Jerome (Jaliscia Durr) Holder, Jr. and Brandon Levitt. She was also an adoring grandmother, reveling in the joy brought to her life by her two grandsons, Ja'Von Holder and Jay'Ceon Holder, who were her pride and delight.

In addition to her immediate family, Tracey is survived by her devoted sister, Jenny (Austin) Sharpe, as well as her loving parents, Geneve and Willie Levitt. She was a guiding light for a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who will forever cherish the memories created with her. “ Wow 😭 I am lost for words, with tears flowing from my eyes. I'm still In shock from Jackie, and Kim. You were my first cousin, and we played together as kids. Life isn't fair to none of us, your sweet life was precious and you will truly be missed. I no we didn't see each other much as we got older, but it's all love! Our family wasn't ready for none of this. Rest peaceful cousin-until we meet again.

“ I watched you put your life on hold to take care of your mom. I watched you take care of your kids mostly by yourself. You even loved my son as if he was yours. You loved my mom as if she gave birth to you. Both of my Dad's loved you until their death. I am so sorry how things ended between us. But thank you for showing me how to love unconditionally and showing me how to put myself before others. As the lyrics say in a song "We both have to go, you just left before me."
