

Tracey Travers

March 21, 1965 - May 24, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved Tracey Amelia Stone-Travers, who peacefully journeyed to her heavenly abode on May 24, 2024, surrounded by love and comfort. Born on March 21, 1965, in Sylacauga, AL, Tracey was the daughter of the late Gladys Whetstone-Stone and Robert Stone.

Tracey's life was defined by her unwavering strength and resilience. She was a devoted mother to her daughters Tiffany Travers and Tianna Travers, and her sons, Robert Walker Travers and Larry Travers Jr. Throughout her life, Tracey found joy in simple pleasures like watching movies, card games, and spending cherished moments with family and friends.

Tracey's journey was marked by her dedication to her work, having served for ten years with the Board of Education Security Department. She fought valiantly against illness, supported by the care and compassion of many in various nursing facilities.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and courage. Tracey is survived by her daughters Tiffany Travers and Tianna Travers of Williamsport, PA; sons, Robert Walker Travers and Larry Travers, Jr. of Pennsylvania; aunts, Patricia Whetstone-Penn of Detroit, MI, and Bernice Hughes of Sylacauga, AL; uncles, Thomas Stone and Micheal Stone of Birmingham, AL, Gassaway Stone of Sylacauga, AL, Terone Stone of Atlanta, GA, and Larry Stone of Oxford, AL; and a host of other family members and friends, including her god-sister, Angie Dillon.

The family of Tracey Stone-Travers wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude for the kindness and support shown during this difficult time of bereavement.

In honor of her memory, let us reflect on the impact she had on all our lives and carry forward the love and strength she embodied.

May Tracey's soul rest in peace, and may her memory continue to inspire and uplift us all.
