

Trayvon White

November 17, 2004 - July 6, 2022

On November 17, 2004, in Anniston, Alabama, the late Shatrick White and Sharike Russell Brown became the proud parents of a handsome baby boy who was given the name Trayvon White.

Trayvon attended Mt. Sinai Missionary Baptist Church throughout his youth and at the time of his passing, he was currently enrolled as an 11th grade student at Oxford High School.

Trayvon had an amusing interest for the play station game and hanging out with his friends listening to music. He enjoyed playing basketball and was an avid Alabama football fan. Trayvon loved his family and friends and enjoyed spending time with them. He was always so full of life, and everyone loved him instantaneously. Because of his likable personality and good attitude, Trayvon was so easy to love.

In the late evening of Wednesday, July 6, 2022, at the young age of 17, Trayvon's life journey came to an end as he entered into eternal rest. Preceding Trayvon in death were his father, Shatrick White and grandfather, Samuel Russell.

Trayvon leaves to cherish his memories his loving and devoted parents, Sharike and Shannon Brown of Oxford, Alabama; six brothers, Shatrick

LaJuan White, Jr., Patrarian Tuck, both of Talladega, Alabama, Antonio Quintez Thompson, Armona Jawon Thompson, Elijiha Nyree Edmonson and Justus Ramone Edmonson, all of Anniston, Alabama; six sisters, Alexis Miller, Tekeara Monquie Welcome, Tykia Dashun Thompson, Akeria Brendice Samecca Edmonson, Parris Brown and Brooklyn Brown, all of Anniston, Alabama; grandparents, Annie (Steve) Taylor of Talladega, Alabama, Jerome (Mary) Hill of Lincoln, Alabama and Linda (Steve) Ervin of Anniston, Alabama; great-grandfather, Roy Jackson of Anniston, Alabama; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Trayvon will truly be missed in his community, by his friends, loved ones, and by all the hearts he touched.
