

Vondrico L. Miller

October 21, 1993 - April 23, 2023

Vondrico L. Miller, 29, was born on October 21, 1993 to the parentage of Gerald L. Miller and Roberta Lynn Bailey in Anniston, Alabama.

At an early age, while residing in Anniston, Alabama, Vondrico accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. He received his formal education in the Anniston City School System and was a 2012 graduate of Anniston High School where he enjoyed playing on the baseball team and being a member of the high school marching band. During his youth, Vondrico was involved in numerous sports and activities including Little League Baseball and Football, but amongst those, baseball was his favorite. Later in life, Vondrico relocated to Summerville, South Carolina with his mother and continued his working career obtaining his CDL license to become a truck driver. At the time of his passing, Vondrico had been gainfully employed with Southern Roots Land Development Company for nearly two years.

Vondrico, affectionately known by his family and friends as "Viddo", was well known and loved. It is often said that one should live without no regrets and Vondrico embodied that very concept. He had a deep escalation for family and the bond that was shared among those that was dearest to him. Of the many relationships that he established, his role as a son and a dad were the two he took great pride in. Simply because of who he was, Vondrico was extremely easy to love. He was known as a workaholic, since working took up most of his time; but in his spare time, Vondrico loved to watch sports and play video games.

Vondrico defeated and overcame several obstacles in life by the grace of the Almighty, but on Sunday evening, April 23, 2023, God had set aside that day especially for his child, Vondrico L. Miller, to return to him as a special driver on those streets that are paved with gold, where there is no more heart aches, pain, or suffering joining his beloved grandparents, Aunna Bailey, Roberta Bailey, and Sally Miller.

Leaving behind to cherish all his love and precious memories are his son, Amor Miller; a loving and devoted mother, Roberta Lynn Bailey; father, Gerald L. Miller; aunt/mom, Bertha Mitchellbrother, Quintarious Miller; sisters, Erica Bailey, Shakayla Almon, Travokia Bradford, Felicia, Miller, and Kelicia Miller; companion and mother of his unborn child, Shanya Ancrum; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relative, and friends including the mother of his son Amor, Ashley McClam.

Vondrico will be missed immensely in his community and his hometown of Anniston, Alabama by his family, friends, loved ones, and all the hearts he has touched and lives he has encountered.

“ The only person that could make me smile from ear to ear.❤️ Such a loving, warm-hearted person. I remember when I met you in 2019, you would always come mess with me at my job & ever since then we built a bond & been close since. You taught me a lot of things & been there for me ever since. The first person I brought around all my family & they loved you for me so much, especially my momma.❤️ Imma miss hearing your voice, you telling my momma I’m being mean to you😭, miss our chill sundays every once in a while, miss you telling me come pick you up from work lol, everything. I’m just glad I got to experience somebody so genuine, & kind hearted❤️ This isn’t a “goodbye” but a “see you later” & I can’t wait till I see you again, I love you more than you could ever know Vondrico☐☐

“ I didn't know Von very long, only the short time we worked together. But I know he was happy most of the time, and genuine in his good nature. Always operating in the interest of fairness and always eager to learn. He will be missed.
