

Mr. Wallace Lee "BO-BO" Reynolds

May 30, 1956 - March 27, 2024

Mr. Wallace Lee Reynolds Sr. was born May 30, 1956 in Talladega to the late Deyampert Reynolds Sr. and Genie Mae Reynolds.

Wallace accepted Christ at an early age and united with the Kingston Missionary Baptist Church in Alpine. He received his formal education in the Talladega County school system and was a graduate of TCTS Class of 1974. Wallace took the first step of fulfilling his dream to become an Electrician by enrolling in CACC. After successfully completing his studies at CACC, Wallace became a certified Electrician. Wallace's career and passion for his work as an electrician in the industrial sector at Kimberly Clark was evident through his commitment and expertise in operating and maintaining the industrial sized paper machines. He embarked on his journey in the field, paving the way for a successful career that spanned over 26 years beginning in 1976 until his retirement in 2002.

Wallace was a giving man and a beloved member of his community. During football season, he took pleasure in watching the Alabama Crimson Tide football games. An avid outdoorsman, his love for the outdoors manifested in his joy of fishing and hunting. Above all, Wallace cherished moments spent with his family, engaging in friendly games of dominoes, and creating lasting memories.
