

Walter Armbrester, Sr.

October 9, 1950 - December 16, 2025

Born on October 9, 1950, in Talladega, Alabama, Walter was a cherished son of the Johnny C. Armbrester and Catherine Thomas Armbrester. His legacy will remain forever woven into the fabric of his community and family.

A devoted servant of Christ, Walter accepted the Lord at a tender age, joining Pine Hill AOH Church of God, where he served with unwavering faith and dedication. He embodied the spirit of love and kindness, touching the lives of countless individuals, his commitment to church, community, and family a testimony of his remarkable character. Growing up in Talladega County, he received his education in the local school system, equipping him for a fulfilling career in the construction industry as a carpenter and laborer. Walter approached each task with a determination and pride that stood as a testament to his work ethic and craftsmanship.

Walter was not only a skilled laborer but also a proud family man. He met the love of his life, the former Della Garrett, as a teenager, and together they nurtured a bond built on steadfast love and mutual respect. Their union flourished, yielding three wonderful children who carry forth his enduring spirit and values. Throughout his life, Walter radiated warmth, creating an environment where family and friends felt cherished and included. He was an avid outdoorsman, passionate about gardening, and relished entertaining loved ones with his infectious dance moves to "BOOTS ON THE GROUND," filling their lives with laughter and joy.
