

Warfredo Gilley

December 11, 1947 - May 9, 2024

Mr. Warfredo Gilley was born in Anniston, Alabama on December 11, 1947 to the union of Charles Arthur Gilley and Lucille Lawler Gilley.

He received his formal education in the Anniston City School System where he attended Cobb High School. Once joining the workforce, he became employed with Alagasco for many years before retiring. Mr. Gilley loved working on cars and watching baseball; but relaxing on the riverbanks with his rod and reel was his passion.

On Friday, May 10, 2024, Warfredo Gilley transitioned from this earthly journey to eternal rest. He was reunited with his parents, Charles and Lucille Gilley, brother Charles Gilley, and his two sisters, Charli Parki and Mary Curry.

Mr. Gilley leaves to cherish his memories two children, Michael (Basya) Gilley and Tonya Gilley; grandchildren, Erika, Ahmad, and T.J.; great-granddaughter, Marly Kay Ford; seven brothers, Fred Curry, David Gilley, Donald (Yvonne) Gilley, Allen Wayne Gilley, William Gilley, James Gilley, and Rickey Gilley; and a host of other relatives and friends.
