

Warren Nobles

June 12, 1971 - January 21, 2024

Warren Broderick Nobles began his earthly journey on June 12, 1971, in Pell City, Alabama when he was welcomed to the world by his parents Warren Rodney Nobles and Channey Strown Nobles.

As a youth Warren accepted Christ as his personal Savior and united with Antioch Missionary Baptist Church and throughout his life, he continued worshipping and understanding the Word. He received his education in the St. Clair County School System and was a graduate of Pell City High School. Soon after high school, Warren joined the workforce and began working in the construction industry. After several year of learning the skills and gaining the knowledge of the construction business, Warren became a contractor in the construction industry.

Warren was well known for the unconditional love he had for his children and family. He always had an energetic spirit and was full of enthusiasm despite any obstacles that may have arisen. With his energetic spirit, especially when it came to music, he could have you laughing at the least little beat . Although he was an avid sports fan and enjoyed baseball and basketball, he was a true die-hard fan of the Auburn "War Eagles". Warren had a desire for gardening but hunting and fishing were two of his passions. When it came to his best friends, meaning his dogs, he thought he was the best trainer there was as he would spend countless hours playing and raising his "FRIENDS". He was a very kind-hearted person who was always willing to lend a helping hand.

On Sunday evening, January 21, 2024, Warren Broderick Nobles departed from this earthly walk of life when God called him from labor to eternal rest. Once gaining his wings, he was welcomed home by his parents, Warren and Channey Nobles, and his sister-in-law, LaTanja Nobles. Warren's departure leaves a void in our lives, but his memory will always shine brightly in our hearts. We shall find comfort in the beautiful moments shared with him and the everlasting impact he had on our lives.

Leaving behind to cherish all his love and precious memories are his wife, Yolanda Cole Nobles; two sons, Alexander (Alexis) Williams and Broderick Adonis Nobles; two daughters, Chondria Nobles (Jamal) Twymon and Chasity Ree Nobles (Justin) Bethune; two brothers, Carlos Nobles and Rufus Marcel (Vicki) Nobles; sister, Deon Coleman; eight grandchildren, Christopher Williams, Adonna Bethune, Zuri Bethune, Aubrie Johnson, Lola Johnson, Ayden Johnson, Raely Collins, Caden Williams, and Warren was patiently awaiting the arrival Baby Zakai Twymon; and a host of other relative and countless friends that will miss him dearly.

Warren will truly be missed by all the hearts he has touched and lives he has encountered.
